

Integro offers a heavy duty line of Lighting Equipment ,Welding Products and Power Distribution Equipment. These products are designed and manufactured with safety and quality in mind. Integro's products are molded in rubber for superior durability, are water tight, and are ideal for rough environments and rugged conditions. Our products are built to the highest quality standards and designed to last longer than other lighter-duty models.

Products

The Integro Difference/Offerings

Lighting Products

- Heavy-Duty Lighting Socket Construction
- Meet Military Specifications
- Molded on heavy-duty SOW cable
- Can be ordered with customer specified molded connectors or blunt cut
- Custom lengths available

Integro manufactures Lighting Streamers, Hand Lights, Quartz Lights, Lamplines and Drop Lights.

Welding Products

- Connections are 100% fill soldered for positive contact, all of the time
- Connector bodies are permanently molded to cable jacket for added strength and weather proof operation
- Custom lengths available

Integro manufactures Welding Extensions, Whips, Ground Clamp Assemblies, Adapters in a variety of industry standard connector styles.

Power Distribution Products

- High quality molded connectors
- Permanently sealed connectors ideal for waterproof operations
- Heavy duty designs
- Custom lengths available

Integro manufactures Power Cords, Extensions, Panel Mount Receptacles, Junctions, and Distribution Systems.

Integro has also served the Shipbuilding, Steel Fabrication and Utility Industries with its products. We are known for our custom design capabilities. We have years of experience in designing molded connectors to meet industrial needs.

Contact Integro with your requirements and our Engineering team will work with you while designing the highest quality connector.